

Sunday Notes

June 21, 2020

Looking towards Sunday:

It's Father's Day, and we will be celebrating fathers and father figures this Sunday. Our scripture is Matthew 10:26-39 in which Jesus says "...I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother..." So, we'll be unpacking some of the family dynamics inherent in a life of faith. My sermon title will be: "Authority Issues."

Cyber coffee and conversation at 11am:

What else? It's time for Dad jokes, or Dads telling jokes! It's also "Make your own ice cream sundae" to celebrate the end of the program year for Faith Formation classes. All are welcome!

We'd like to see you in (virtual) worship!

This Sunday, June 21st, is Father's Day. We would love to include images of the Fathers in your hearts and lives -- those who you are honoring this year in our recorded worship experience. Whether it is an old photo or a snapshot offered in celebration of a new father in your family this year. We will include these images in a special tribute to fathers during the worship service.

Three easy steps:

1. Locate a photo of the father or father figure you are remembering this year.
2. If it is a physical photo either scan it or take a picture of it with your phone.
3. Send it in an email identifying who is in the picture to Jim.boratko@whfirstchurch.org by Thursday, June 18th at midnight with the subject line Father's Day Sunday.

Fathers and father figures of all kinds are welcome! We'll "see" each other in worship!

Church School Mid-Week Check-Ins

We also have a third check-in time on Wednesdays at 6 pm for our families that cannot make morning meetings. You can use the same link to join these meetings, where students can listen to stories, play games, and talk together as a community, all lead by Lauren.

(G)race Speaks

Wednesdays July 1st, 15th, and 29th at 3:30 pm

Let's do some safe travelling together this summer - virtually! The pandemic has created a new opportunity for us to visit other churches and hear other voices. We're able to get a glimpse of what is happening in communities beyond West Hartford and hear how people of faith are thinking about their circumstances. In "(G)race Speaks," we are pausing in this moment to visit and listen in to voices we would otherwise not be hearing. Erica Avena and Jennifer deSimas will put together a guided trip and invite you to join the journey. All you need to do, at your leisure, is to visit our chosen destination and then join the Zoom gathering the following Wednesday for afternoon tea at 3:30 pm. Sign up for the discussion HERE.

We will begin by visiting Senior Pastor, The Rev. Dr Otis Moss III at Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago, Illinois. Dr. Moss built his ministry on community advancement and social justice activism. We will listen to his sermon "The Cross and the Lynching Tree: A Requiem for Ahmaud Arbery." You may watch the video here.

First Church READS

Monday evenings, July 6th - August 10th, from 6:30 to 8 pm via Zoom

Perhaps by now you've grasped the message of Black Lives Matter, and you're asking "What can I do? Where do we start?" The JPW Library invites you to a six-week book study of Ijeoma Oluo's So You Want to Talk About Race. The book "offers straightforward clarity that readers of all races need to contribute to the dismantling of the racial divide" so they can move beyond talk and into action. The JPWL has the books, and they are free to use (or purchase one for $10). They are available via JPW Library pick-up. To join this group, please register here.

June Reach Out

Foodshare, Loaves and Fishes Ministry, and Town that Cares continue to need your help. Monetary donations are greatly needed. You can make donations online for these organizations or send a check to the address listed for each on their websites. The church has been a strong supporter for these groups and hopes you will also be able to help them serve those in need.

Hello Members & Friends of First Church,

As we continue to be physically apart from one another, we know that the work of First Church continues on – most especially at this time of so much need in our communities. Both the Inreach and Outreach teams are at no loss for people, places, and organizations to support. To keep all these “gardens” tended we ask that you continue to stay current in sending your gifts and pledges. Online giving instructions are below, or you can always use the US Postal Service!

Please note, your donation can be designated for a particular fund, such as the Pastor’s Discretionary Fund – used by our clergy to provide for the immediate needs of members and friends, or Music & Fine Arts – among other options. Your donation can also be designated as a non-pledge donation which is gratefully used to support the needs of our community presence as well as building and staffing necessities. Thank you so much for whatever way you have, and will continue, to contribute!

Blessings,
Eleanor Wight & the Stewardship Workgroup
