Looking Towards Sunday

The weekend forecast calls for reign. Reign of Christ (or Christ the King) Sunday marks the end of the liturgical year when we're challenged to consider the extent to which the peace of Christ rules in our hearts – whether or not the words and way of Christ dictate our actions and decisions.

As I recently mentioned during announcements, Rev. Susan IZARD will offer the morning message based on Matthew 25:31-46. It is entitled "The Way of God's Kingdom". I look forward to her preaching and her presence!

Sunday is also New Member Sunday. At this writing, we expect to receive ten travelers into the fellowship and ministry of First Church! It's never, ever about the number of new members. It's always about the nature of the moment – a celebration of the Holy Spirit's amazing ability to increase the circle of community. Kin-dom come closer! Can't! Wait!

Blessings meantime,

Rev. Fredd

Book Group News:

The church's John P. Webster Library coordinates and sponsors two regular book groups that meet in the library. Copies of the books are provided for participants. New members are always welcome! For more information, please contact Jennifer or Molly at 860-232-3893 or jpwlibrary@whfirstchurch.org.

Awakening the Spirit, led by Rev. Tom Carr, meets Mondays from 12-1:30. Bring a bag lunch; beverages and desserts are provided. The group is reading Thich Nhat Hanh's classic Living Buddha, Living Christ (20th anniversary edition). If the Buddha and Jesus were to meet on the road today, what would each think of the other's spiritual views and practices? Hanh brings to Christianity an appreciation of its beauty that could be conveyed only by an outsider. In lucid, meditative prose, he explores the crossroads of compassion and holiness at which the two traditions meet, and he reawakens our understanding of both.

Food for Thought's next meeting is December 5 from 5:30-6:30 p.m. to discuss Everything Beautiful in Its Time: Seasons of Love and Loss by Jenna Bush Hagar. In this heartfelt memoir, the former first daughter and grand-daughter shares moving, funny stories about her beloved grandparents and the wisdom they passed on that has shaped her life. A wonderful celebration of the enduring power of family and an exploration of the things that truly matter most (Amazon review). Their next book will be Horse by Geraldine Brooks: Based on the remarkable true story of the record-breaking thoroughbred Lexington, Horse is a novel of art and science, love and obsession, and our unfinished reckoning with racism...A discarded painting in a junk pile, a skeleton in an attic, and the greatest racehorse in American history: from these strands, a Pulitzer Prize winner braids a sweeping story of spirit, obsession, and injustice across American history.

Announcements

Update from the First Church Academy Workgroup

In April of this year, our Coordinating Team, led by Moderator Wendy Wigglesworth, convened a work group to examine the relationship between the church and the First Church Academy for Young Children. The members of the work group were: Suzanne Carnes, Chair; Jenny Clark, Co-Chair; Diane Bohman; Linda Lacasse; Dawne Quinn, Lisa Reed, and Jim Warner.

Our charge from the Coordinating Team was to “discern the pros and cons of a legal separation of the Academy from the church” as its own entity.

After consulting with several church leaders, staff members, our insurance provider and three attorneys, we completed our work in October. The final report was sent to the Business Team, which in turn presented it to the Coordinating Team.

Our unanimous decision was that the First Church Academy should remain as part of First Church. It should not be separated as its own entity.

Taking Photos in Church and Sharing Policy

Taking photos and documenting life events is commonplace now and more and more common in church settings. Lots of members are asking about taking photos at church events and wondering how to share them and to avoid confusion, we came up with some guidelines. Most important: be sure phone is in silent mode and skip solo selfies when tagging church events! Laminated copies of guidelines are at each entrance to the Sanctuary and at the auditorium entrance, or view policy here or go to website>Photo Gallery page. Thank you, Amy and Joy.
